Component Mission

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results-focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Deliver entry, mid, and senior executive-level programs (as assigned) for the IC workforce.
- Ensure that curricula, content, and program agenda support the IC priorities.
- Serve as an instructional facilitator using synchronous and asynchronous (online) instruction for interagency teams of students and for in-class plenary sessions and student working groups.
- Oversee projects with colleagues to enhance approved curricula, design
- innovative teaching methods, and strategies to engage students through both inline and in-class venues.
- Lead assessments of program content, in-class sessions, and student projects and make substantive changes when warranted to ensure program relevancy and currency.
- Assist stakeholders and ILN affiliate members as appropriate.
